Deno's Dialogue

This September we are having our annual fundraiser. A charity committee has selected some and they will be discussed and voted on this next meeting. I would like all of our members to be a part of the event but that is not always possible since we all have lives and families. If you volunteer to be on a committee and work you can get into the event for $20.00 per member. The key is that we need workers. My old motto is if we all do some things then everyone does not have to do a lot. We are doing several different things this Wings and change is good.

I am specifically looking for a few good men or women to do some watching tasks. We need about 4 or 5 to watch over the raffles and silent auctions during the party. This is not hard work but important. They will keep things from getting mixed up and the wrong people taking things that they did not win. Some not intentional but there will be alcohol. We also need a small group of bar tenders. A bar tender is an important job and that person can drink but must be in control of the bar and one's self at all time. If you are interested in doing any of these important jobs or being on a committee please let someone know. The above mentioned jobs should contact me. Hope to see everyone at the monthly meeting next week. A notice will be out soon, and the location may be different due to a scheduling conflict.

Stay Tuned.

La Vie Dansante

They can come take it all away
 Break your heart by the light of day
 Drown your love in a distant bay so lonely
 See the ships heading for the rocks
 See the time melting off a the clocks
 There's a light shatters all the locks
 And saves me It saves me

That's why I wander and follow La Vie Dansante
 On the night wind that takes me just where I want
 That's all I want La Vie Dansante
 Why don't you wander and follow La Vie Dansante
 On the night wind that takes you just where you want
 That's all you want La Vie Dansante

Miss the beat if you close your eyes
 Every night wears a new disguise
 And I live when a new surprise surrenders
 Feel it all with a willing heart
 Every stop is a place to start
 If you know how to play the part with feeling
 I play with feeling

That's why I wander and follow La Vie Dansante
 On the night wind that takes me just where I want
 That's all I want La Vie Dansante
 Why don't you wander and follow La Vie Dansante
 On the night wind that takes you just where you want
 That's all you want La Vie Dansante

That's why we wander and follow La Vie Dansante
 On the night wind that takes us just where we want
 That's all we want La Vie Dansante
 Why don't you wander and follow The Dancing Light
 On the night wind that takes you just where you want
 That's all you want La Vie Dansante

That's why we wander and follow La Vie Dansante
 On the night wind that takes us just where we want
 That's all we want La Vie Dansante
